

SATURDAY THE CASE OF THE BURNING LOG

Have you ever heard of D. L. Moody? He was a famous preacher in the late 19th century. Somebody confronted him saying, “I don’t believe you have to go to church to be a Christian.”

Moody didn’t say a word. Instead he went to the fireplace, took out a log and placed it on the hearth. Together, they watched the burning log expire. Moody then returned it to the fire where it ignited once again.

Couldn’t say it better myself!

In this time of isolation and trouble there’s even more reason to stay where the fire is to keep us ignited and warm. Please give yourself a time every day to come to your computer and look at our daily reflection – to keep God’s alive in your mind and heart.
